

B.TECH IN CHEMICAL ENGINEERING

Admission starts in 2023 through all india jee ranking

Why Chemical Engineering ?

Chemical Engineering is one of the core disciplines of engineering and there is an increasing demand for chemical engineers in the petrochemical, Biofuel, energy, Food processing, agriculture, and pharmaceutical industries. It is essential to develop technology and trained human resource to meet the enormous requirement in above said domains both in government and private sectors.

Uniqueness of the Program

The program structure and curriculum is developed by the leading experts in academia from India and works and encompasses the tradition and modern topics of chemical engineering. The curriculum is intended to provide a holistic perspective to the students focusing on multidisciplinary, and hands-on approach. Students have an opportunity to streamline their learning in the following specializations: Petrochemical, Biochemical, Energy, Pharmaceutical, Processing etc.,

About us

IIT Indore, established in 2009, is a one of the 2nd generation IITs and ranks high in the QS and NIRF rankings. IIT Indore offers unique interdisciplinary programs and modern curriculum inline with the NEP for the holistic development of students. For more details about the program, please contact

academic-office@iiti.ac.in;

91 0731 660 3128