

Additional T&C

Indemnity- The supplied material is to be integrated with existing 11 KV 2 MVA DG set after removal of the existing radiator from existing DG set.

The supplier being responsible for supply, installation, integration, testing, and commissioning of the supplied radiator with the existing system, the bidder must Indemnity IIT Indore for any damage to its existing assets, man or other material. During the process of subjected work till it is being accepted by IIT Indore for its defect free intended operation. Also bidder should identify IIT Indore for any statutory requirement before and after the subject work, during All other equipments and accessories required for installation and integration is demand to have been included in the quoted price. Nothing extra from the quoted price shall be payable on account of the subject work. Removal of the existing radiator is demanded to have been included in the quoted price.