

Indian Institute of Technology
Indore

Prof. Anirban Sengupta, in the Department of CSE, at Indian Institute of Technology Indore has been selected for Distinguished Contributor of IEEE Computer Society award/recognition for the year 2025, for his outstanding contributions in the field of Hardware Security and Optimization.

Note: "Only Top 0.5% of the total IEEE Computer Society Members globally are recognized for this honor based on their outstanding technical contributions, through either applied or pure computing, to the Computing Profession, Computing Community, and Humanity with a significant portion of those technical contributions made through association with the IEEE Computer Society".

Congratulations to Prof. Anirban Sengupta for receiving this prestigious honour !