

Advertisement for Recruitment of Assistant General Manager/Chief Manager (Engagement) and Senior Manager (Operations)

The Office of Alumni and Corporate Relations (ACR) invites applications from dynamic and experienced professionals for the following positions of Assistant General Manager (Engagement) & Senior Manager (Operations) under the ACR Project:

About Alumni & Corporate Relations Office (ACR), IIT Indore

The Alumni & Corporate Relations (ACR) Office of the Indian Institute of Technology Indore serves as a strategic interface between the Institute and its alumni, industry, corporates, and other external stakeholders. The Office plays a pivotal role in strengthening long-term relationships that support the Institute's academic, research, innovation, and outreach objectives.

The ACR Office is responsible for alumni engagement initiatives, corporate partnerships, industry collaborations, institutional branding, and resource mobilization. It facilitates structured alumni interactions through chapters, reunions, mentoring programs, and events, while also enabling meaningful corporate engagement in areas such as sponsored research, internships, placements, CSR collaborations, and technology transfer.

In addition, the Office supports strategic communications, stakeholder engagement, and operational coordination related to alumni and corporate activities, ensuring professional execution and sustained impact. Through its initiatives, the ACR Office contributes significantly to enhancing IIT Indore's national and global visibility, fostering industry-academia linkages, and building a strong, engaged alumni network.

The positions of AGM (Engagement) and Senior Manager (Operations) are integral to advancing the objectives of the ACR Office by driving engagement strategies, strengthening partnerships, and ensuring efficient operational management of alumni and corporate relations activities.
